
Single-scan rule: lowest numeric session in the available MRI subset.
This does not establish the true first clinical visit. No external validation.